

TEN DAYS OF AWE

by Sarah Lowe, South Central Area Leader, www.nationaldayofprayer.org

In the midst of the noise over Financial Crises, Gas Shortages, Storms, Wars, Rumors, Blames Games and Election Warfare, we realize these are critical days—but also days of GREAT OPPORTUNITY for those who know HIS SET TIME.

At sundown on September 29, we enter into perhaps the Most Holy Season set up by our Heavenly Father!!! The Feast of Tabernacles is celebrated in the upcoming season beginning with the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah, followed by the Day of Atonement (Oct 9, Yom Kippur) and Sukkot on Oct 12. There are many who know much more than I about these days but what I do see is that battle lines are set in place.

Many of us have been praying during Ramadan in love for Muslim People. This emphasis ends at sundown on September 30. Abba Father is allowing nations to decide if they will be “sheep or goat” nations.

Rosh Hashanah is a time of the sounding of the Shofar. The ram’s horn (sometimes called the Blood Horn) is a reminder of the ram sacrifice that took the place of Isaac. The ram was caught in the thicket by his horns and when the sacrifice was made, the horn of blood cries forth the sound of REPENTANCE to all who will hear. Pray that this is the year we HEAR!

FATHER is calling HIS People to a place of true repentance... a repentance that never need to be repented of again because we change... Holiness unto our GOD!

Let us be obedient in all HE is directing.

Let us take our places as Kings and Priests of the Most High G-D in the humility that reflects our GREAT HIGH PRIEST, YESHUA.

There is so much to be said but most important of all, I want to SOUND THE ALARM, BLOW THE SHOFAR and ask you to come before HIS THRONE OF GRACE with me in repentance during this season of Awe. Press in to HIM for ourselves and our nation. If you will print this prayer guide below, we will be praying in agreement with many around this nation and around the globe.

10 Days of Awe—Rosh Hashanah: the Feast of Trumpets, (literally the Head of the Year) or Jewish New Year’s Day. This holy day begins at sunset on September 29 with the calling of a solemn assembly. This feast is the 1st in a series of 3 fall festivals. The 10 Days of Awe is considered to be the holiest time of the year, the days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, when one considers his/her sins before God, asking forgiveness from God and from those one has harmed.

It was believed that sins repented of during this time changed the destiny of the nation for the coming year and there was an open window in heaven to restore destiny during these 10 days. It is customary to blow 100 blasts of the shofar (trumpet) during daily calling the people to prayer.
